2014-2015 DOMESTIC VIOLENCE COMMUNITY AWARENESS PROJECT STUDENT COORDINATOR APPLICATION

Application Deadline: March 24, 2014

The student coordinator position will benefit a rising first or second year Delaware Widener Law student. It is anticipated that the student coordinator will devote approximately 10 hours each week during both the fall and spring semesters. The student coordinator will recruit, train, and manage student volunteers who will interact directly with members of the community, educating them about the legal rights of domestic violence survivors. The Student Coordinator will plan and facilitate student volunteer activities. In so doing he or she will help assure two critical components of this project:

1. Effective communication with the community in accordance to the Community Awareness Project's stated objectives; and
2. The acquisition of critical skills and appreciation of the importance of pro bono service by participating student volunteers.

To apply for the 2014-2015 Domestic Violence Community Awareness Project Coordinator position, you must complete this application in its entirety and submit it along with the following materials:
