The Delaware State Bar Association will honor two Widener University School of Law alumni this month with Distinguished Pro Bono Service Awards.

John Andrade, '78, will receive the Commitment Award for demonstrating a sterling commitment to pro bono work in his career by dedicating time and energy to the support and provision of legal services. Andrade, 53, joined Parkowski, Guerke & Swayze, P.A. in 1980 and is a director whose practice is concentrated on product liability, environmental law, intellectual property and civil litigation. His office is in Dover, Delaware.

Andrade has been a member of the law school adjunct faculty since 1983, teaching products liability.

Patrick E. Vanderslice, '99, will receive the Achievement Award for demonstrating an exemplary recent contribution to pro bono services and standing out as a role model for other attorneys. Vanderslice, 37, is an associate attorney with Moore & Rutt in Georgetown, Delaware concentrating in family law, civil litigation, collections, wills, contracts and real estate. He also works as an attorney to the Republican members of the Delaware House of Representatives.

They will be honored Jan. 25 at the Sheraton Dover Hotel during the Delaware State Bar Association's 25th annual State Bar Night.
