Widener University School of Law

Professional Development Day
October 29, 2013

Available Resources for Your Job Search

Edmund Sonnenberg
Ed Sonnenberg received his M.L.S. from Kent State University and his A.B. from Ohio University. For the past 14 years, he has served as the Reference/Government Documents Librarian at Widener University School of Law in Harrisburg, PA. His previous employment was as a law librarian at the Detroit law firm of Honigman Miller Schwartz & Cohn and, prior to that, as a law librarian with the law firm of Blank Rome in Philadelphia. He is a member of the American Association of Law Libraries and the Greater Philadelphia Law Library Association.

Susan Giusti
Susan Giusti received her M.L.S. from Clarion University of Pennsylvania and her B.A. from York College of Pennsylvania. For the past 3 years she has served as the Technical Services Team Leader and Reference Librarian at Widener University School of Law. Prior to that, she was an Assistant Librarian for 7 years with the law firm McNees, Wallace & Nurick LLC in Harrisburg. She is a member of the American Association of Law Libraries, Greater Philadelphia La Library Association, and Special Libraries Association.

Brent Johnson
Brent Johnson is the Access Services Librarian at the Widener University Legal Information Center. Since coming to Widener in 2005, Brent has taught legal reference in conjunction with the legal methods program and is interested in the use of technology for teaching legal research. Brent received his JD from Oklahoma City School of Law and is a member of the Oklahoma Bar. He received his Masters of Education in Instructional Technology from the University of Central Oklahoma and his MLIS from the University of Pittsburgh.

Stephanie Engerer
Stephanie Engerer is the new Emerging Technologies Librarian at Widener University School of Law Legal Information Center in Harrisburg, PA. She received her M.L.I.S. from Wayne State University and her B.S. in Public Administration and Legal Studies from George Mason University. She is a member of the American Association of Law Library Association and the Greater Philadelphia Law Library Association.