ABOUT THE JURIST ACADEMY

Two weeks at Widener's Jurist Academy will give you a real sense of what law school is like and what opportunities lie ahead for you in the field of law. Students will experience the dynamics of a law school classroom, will meet lawyers and judges in field trips and on-campus, and will have many opportunities to learn about the admissions process and life at law school. You'll be able to practice your oral argument, analytic, and test-taking skills. You'll learn how lawyers prepare for cases and strategies law students use to survive—and enjoy!—law school.

PROGRAM CONTENT

- LSAT Review and Preparation
- Practice LSAT
- Torts
- Criminal Law
- Essay Writing Techniques
- Field Trips to Various Courts
- Panel Discussions
- Admissions Process
- Academic Success Strategies

Eligibility

College students who have completed their sophomore year, have earned a cumulative grade point average of 2.8 or better, anticipate earning their bachelor's degree on or before June 1, 2013 and who are members of a group traditionally underrepresented in law school are eligible.

Eligible applicants should obtain an application by returning the attached postcard, visiting our web site at law.widener.edu or by contacting the Public Interest Resource Center at (302) 477-2264.

Application Deadline March 11, 2013

Goal

To increase participation of underrepresented groups in law school by decreasing educational and informational barriers to matriculating in law school and by facilitating exposure to legal career options while building critical thinking and analytical skills necessary to success in law school and in the legal profession.
