ANN ELIZABETH FRUTH

1820 Walnut Street
Camp Hill, Pennsylvania 17011
(717) 731-0412

ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

Widener University School of Law
Harrisburg, Pennsylvania

June 2009 to Present

Legal Methods Professor; Director, Academic Support Program. Taught Legal Methods III: Advanced Legal Analysis, Intensive Legal Analysis, Introduction to Law. Responsible for implementing Academic Support Programs and supervising Academic Support Fellow Program. Taught in Widener's Nairobi Summer Law Institute.

October 2007 to June 2009

Dean of Students. Responsible for developing and administering student governance policies and overseeing student organizations and activities. Assist the Vice Dean in administrative matters and in supervision of the Registrar, Financial Aid and Business Offices.

July 2002 to October 2007

Legal Methods Professor. Responsible for teaching Legal Methods I & II including legal research, legal analysis, legal writing and oral argument. Taught in Academic Support and Trial Admissions Programs, Introduction to Law, Payment Systems and in Widener's Nairobi Summer Law Institute

July 1997 to June 2002

Dean of Students. Responsible for developing and administering student governance policies and overseeing student organizations and activities. Assisted the Vice Dean in administrative matters and in supervision of the Registrar, Financial Aid and Business Offices.

August 1995 to June 1998

Assistant Director for Admissions. Responsible for managing the Admissions Office on the Harrisburg campus. Assisted in designing and implementing recruiting and retention plans for the law school. Reviewed and voted on files of applicants to the law school. Taught Banking Law.

LEGAL EXPERIENCE

Pennsylvania Department of Banking
Harrisburg, Pennsylvania

September 1992 to July 1995

Attorney. Responsible for researching and drafting regulations, enforcement documents, legal opinion letters, pleadings, briefs, and memoranda relating to state and federal banking statutes. Assisted in litigation and administering receivership property.

Mette, Evans & Woodside
Harrisburg, Pennsylvania

May 1990 to May 1992

Law Clerk. Drafted memoranda, pleadings and briefs. Researched and analyzed procedural and substantive legal issues in corporate, real estate, bankruptcy, securities, environmental, administrative and insurance matters.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Admissions

United States Supreme Court, March 1997
E.D. Pennsylvania, December 1993
Pennsylvania Bar, December 1992

Memberships

Mid-Penn Legal Services
Board Member, Executive Committee Member,
Chair, Personnel Committee
American Association of Law Schools
American Bar Association
Pennsylvania Bar Association
Dauphin County Bar Association

EDUCATION

Widener University School of Law — J.D. awarded May 1992
Harrisburg, Pennsylvania — cum laude

Achievements: Editor-in-Chief, Widener Journal of Public Law
Outstanding Service Award
American Jurisprudence for Law Review
American Jurisprudence for Legal Methods/Analysis

University of Chicago — M.A. awarded March 1977
Chicago, Illinois
Major: Political Science

York College of Pennsylvania — B.A. awarded May 1972
York, Pennsylvania — magna cum laude
Major: History

PERSONAL ACTIVITIES

Memberships

Pennsylvania Wildlife Resources Advisory Board
Hawk Mountain Sanctuary, Board Member, 1996-2003
Chair, Finance Committee, 1998-2003
National Audubon Society
The Nature Conservancy
Ned Smith Center for Nature and Art
Worked on owl-banding project, 2002-present

Pro Bono Work

Pennsylvania Asylum Resource Center