Timothy A. Shollenberger, Esq., Senior Partner

Mr. Shollenberger graduated summa cum laude from Dickinson College in 1978 and the attained his J.D. from the Dickinson School of Law in 1981. He is a partner in the law firm of Shollenberger and Januzzi, LLP.

Mr. Shollenberger has been selected for admission into the Million Dollar Advocates Forum. Membership is limited to those lawyers who have achieved verdicts and or/settlements of a million dollars or more for one or more clients. In 2009, Mr. Shollenberger gained membership to the Elite Lawyers of America. In 2011, for the third straight year, Mr. Shollenberger was selected by The National Trial Lawyers as one of the top 100 trial lawyers in the state of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Shollenberger has attained a well earned reputation as a staunch advocate for his clients. He has tried personal injury cases to verdict in seven different counties and the Middle District of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Shollenberger has also attained statewide recognition for his work in educating other attorneys. He currently lectures for the Pennsylvania Bar Institute on personal injury law. He has co-authored two widely regarded publications on important personal injury issues, including "Pennsylvania Motor Vehicle Insurance, An Analysis of the Financial Responsibility Law" and "Pennsylvania Personal Injury Subrogation Handbook".

Mr. Shollenberger has also served the legal community in other ways. For many years, he worked tirelessly for the Pennsylvania Trial Lawyers Association, attaining its highest office, President, in 2000-2001.

Mr. Shollenberger is also active in the local community. He has served on numerous committees for the local chapter of the American Heart Association and conducted mock trials in local elementary schools to warn children of the perils of tobacco. For this latter work, he received a Citation from the Pennsylvania House of Representatives and the Volunteer of the Year Award from the United Way Capital Region.
