WIDENER UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW ~ Delaware campus

Message from Dean Linda Ammons

Congratulations on completing this school year. The dedication and professionalism of our students, faculty and staff combine to make the Widener University School of Law an outstanding school. Each year as Dean, I gain new insights of the many strengths of this law school. I applaud the leadership provided by our SBA leaders and the governing boards of our law journals, moot court, trial advocacy societies, and all of our student organizations. The commitment to public service exhibited by all the members of the Law School community is inspiring, and the work in our clinical programs on behalf of people and causes that would otherwise go unrepresented is an important contribution our law school makes to the communities of which we are a part.

Finally, the many members of the staff, including the diligent work of Assistant Vice President, Deborah McCreery and her development and alumni relations team are to be applauded for continuing to make Widener a great place to be.

To those of you who are graduating, congratulations! I am looking forward to seeing you and your families at graduation. I wish you the best of luck on the bar exam and I know you will make us proud as you embark on your legal careers. The bar exam, of course, is a major hurdle, and I urge you take your preparations very seriously. Take full advantage of the bar review courses. You should take at least one course, and if possible, you should try to take two - both BarBri or its equivalent and PMBR or its equivalent. The two approaches do not duplicate, but rather complement each other, and taking both, if you are able, will maximize your chances for success. Also, try to carve out as many weeks before the exam for studying as possible. If you are working, take as much vacation time as you can, or even unpaid leaves of absence if you can arrange it, to devote your energies to studying for the bar. You have come this far and invested so much money on your legal education already that it is worth a little more investment to maximize your chances of passing the bar on your first try.

For those of you returning next fall, I wish you a productive and enjoyable summer. If you will be engaged in law-related employment or internship opportunities, I am sure you will return in the fall with a great appreciation of what you have learned in your classes, and what you still have to learn. Those of you studying abroad, have a wonderful time. I hope to see you in Switzerland, Italy or Kenya. Spread the news about Widener Law. Good luck, and come back in August with your batteries recharged and with a renewed dedication to your legal studies.

Thank you all for helping to make my year as Dean a successful one.

CAMPUS SERVICES

QUIET HOURS:

Mandatory quiet hours are in effect in the dormitories and apartments on campus beginning Wednesday, April 29th. Quiet hours will be in effect 24 hours a day until final exams are over. Any problems during the day should be reported to Campus Services. Any problems after hours should be reported to Campus Safety. Thank you for your consideration and cooperation.

REMINDER FOR APARTMENT RESIDENTS:

Apartment deposits were due by Friday, May 1, 2009. Payments should be made to the Campus Services Office. No apartments will be held after May 1, 2009 without a deposit. Apartment leases for the 2009/10 academic year are ready to be signed. All apartment residents must sign their lease no later than Friday, May 8, 2009. If you have any questions, please contact Chris Burrell at cmburrell@widener.edu or stop by the Campus Services office.

REMINDER FOR DORMITORY RESIDENTS:

If you did not pay your housing deposit by April 17th for the 2009/10 academic year, your room is no longer reserved. There is still a chance you can keep your dormitory room by paying the deposit no later than Monday, April 27th. Stop by the Campus Services office or contact Kim Louisignau at kalouisignau@widener.edu to confirm your housing arrangements.

DORMITORY CLOSING:

The dormitories will be closing at 12 Noon on Friday, May 15, 2009. All residents will need to vacate their dormitory room and return their key to the Campus Services office before they leave campus. You will need approval from the Campus Services office to remain in your dorm room beyond this date. If you have signed up for I.T.A.P., bar review housing or summer housing, you are exempt from this deadline. Any questions or concerns can be directed to Chris Burrell at cmburrell@widener.edu or Kim Louisignau at kalouisignau@widener.edu.

ATTENTION ALL GRADUATES:

If you are graduating, or if you will not be returning to campus for the fall 2009 semester, please remember to close your student mailbox and return the mailbox key. Just stop by the mailroom during their scheduled hours to fill out the form for forwarding your mail and return your key. After hours, just put your key in an envelope, along with your forwarding address, and drop it through the mail slot in the window. If you are using one of the lockers on campus, and will not be returning in the fall, please return your locker key to the Campus Services office, located in the Passmore House. You will be given a voucher for the refund of the locker key deposit. Please remember to turn in your mailbox and locker keys before you leave campus for the final time. Thank you!

2009 July Bar Information

Enrolling in a Bar Review course does not enroll you to take the bar exam. You must complete a separate application to take the bar exam. Student Health Insurance Available for up to One Year after Graduation

Numerous graduating third year law students who are either currently unemployed or on deferred employment have inquired about the availability of health insurance from the ABA Law Student Division. For many of these law student graduates, their current health insurance will expire this summer and without employer health insurance, they will be uninsured for an indefinite period of time. Because health insurance coverage is important, we encourage you to pass along this message to your third year graduating law students.

The ABA Law Student Division health insurance plan with United Healthcare Student Resources (UHCSR) offers a health insurance coverage extension for up to one year from the student's graduation date PROVIDED the student is currently carrying this plan AND there is no break (lapse) in coverage between the date of graduation and the first day of this one-year extension.

Graduating law students who are not currently carrying this health insurance coverage with the ABA Law Student Division UHCSR plan may still qualify for the graduate extension by purchasing the last quarter of the health plan before graduating. Enrollment in the plan prior to graduation is an ABSOLUTE requirement of the carrier. Students may view the health plan benefits at <https://www.uhcsr.com/ABA>

For more information regarding this benefit and a pro-rated premium amount that will provide coverage for 12 months from the date of graduation, students may call UHCSR at 1-800-505-5450.

Two simple steps –

1. This program is offered to ABA Law Student Division members only. If not currently enrolled in the ABA – students may join by calling 800.285.2221 or visiting <http://www.abanet.org/join/>
2. If not currently enrolled in UnitedHealthcare Student Resources – students should sign up now while still a student and before graduation for the last quarter (90 days) of the current plan, in order to be eligible for the graduate extension. Eligibility requires being a law student – not a graduate; being enrolled in an ABA-approved law school and being a member of the ABA. Students enrolling (or already enrolled) must request the graduation extension which will expire one year from the student's graduation date. Please keep in mind that there can be no break in coverage from the original plan and the extension. UHCSR will calculate a pro-rated premium for that graduation extension coverage. For a copy of the plan benefits, please visit <https://www.uhcsr.com/ABA>.

Thank you.

Student Organizations

Delaware Journal of Corporate Law SPRING 2009 SUPERIOR AUTHORSHIP COMPETITION

The Delaware Journal of Corporate Law, the school's preeminent law review, accepts scholarly articles from students for its Superior Authorship Competition. This competition provides an alternative means of gaining membership to this law review for those students not yet affiliated with a scholarly journal on campus. Aside from the corporate nature of this law review, membership provides those of all interests with an opportunity to perfect their writing, organizational, bluebook, and editing skills. Law review membership and the skills it provides are also highly regarded by employers.

There are, however, certain requirements that need to be fulfilled in order to be eligible for the competition. In short, you must:

1. be a 2RD or 3ED student;
2. have earned a 2.7 GPA or higher as of the end of the spring 2009 semester; and
3. topics must be approved by the Editor-in-Chief by Wednesday, April 29, by 4:00 p.m.
4. submissions are due in the Law Review's Office by Thursday, June 11, by 4:00 p.m.

Other requirements do apply, such as topic approval and paper style. For a full list of requirements and further information regarding this competition, please direct inquiries to the office of the Editor-in-Chief, Kevin M. Gallagher, Polishook Hall, Room P503, phone 477-2106, email kmgallagher@mail.widener.edu. After April 1, please direct inquiries to the incoming Editor-in-Chief, William M. Alleman, at email william.alleman@gmail.com.

WLR's 2009 Summer Writing Competition

The competition opens Saturday, May 9th, and closes Saturday, June 20th

Applicants may upload competition packets via the Summer Writing Competition TWEN page.

Papers must be submitted by 5:00 p.m. three weeks from their date of pick-up. Packets include issues for legal analysis, all case research and background information as well as guidelines on paper organization and format.

For questions, please contact Jessica Schuler at jaschuler@mail.widener.edu

THANKS AND GOOD LUCK!

DELAWARE JOURNAL OF CORPORATE LAW

2009 SUMMER WRITE-ON COMPETITION

Pickup for the DJCL summer writing competition begins on Saturday, May 9, and ends on Saturday, June 20. You may either pick up the packet at the DJCL offices in Polishook or the Library circulation desk. The packet also is available online through TWEN at Delaware Journal of Corporate Law Summer Writing Competition.

Participants have three weeks from the date of pick-up to complete the assignment. Papers are due by 4:00 p.m. on the date due and should be delivered by email to djcl@widener.edu or by hardcopy to either the Delaware Journal of Corporate Law Office in Polishook, or to the circulation desk of the Legal Information Center if the Journal Office is closed. Papers that are mailed must be postmarked no later than the due date. No late papers will be accepted.

In addition to any paper which is submitted after the deadline, the following submissions will be deemed ineligible for Journal membership:

1. Where the author's cumulative GPA, through Spring 2009, is below 2.7;
2. Where the paper contains evidence of plagiarism or other Honor Code violations (specifically Section 202(a), which includes: (1) the unauthorized giving or receiving of material aid or assistance; (3) the unauthorized use of information; and (4) the giving or obtaining of any unfair academic advantage) (NOTE: These findings will also be referred to the Disciplinary Board); or
3. Where the participant has used outside research.

The packet includes all sources that may be used for the note. Sources have been deliberately limited to ensure concentration on certain issues. There is to be no outside research. Participants may, however, consult hornbooks, dictionaries, style manuals, and the Bluebook (18th edition).

If you have any questions, please call 302-477-2145. We look forward to reviewing your submissions. Good luck.
