FINANCIAL AID OFFICE

Welcome to Widener Law. The Financial Aid Office is available to assist students with their financial aid process and answer any questions you may have. We are located in the Student Services wing of the Law Building.

Our office hours and contact information are as follows:

Monday	9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.	Telephone:	302-477-2272
Tuesday	9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.	Fax:	302-477-2034

Thursday	9:00 a.m. – 6:30 p.m.
Friday	9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

If you would like to meet with a financial aid counselor outside of our posted hours, please contact the Financial Aid Office and we will do our best to accommodate your needs.

A synopsis of available financial aid is located in the Law Center's Financial Aid Sourcebook. If you have any questions, please contact the Financial Aid Office either in person, via email at lawfinaidde@mail.widener.edu or by telephone at 302-477-2272. Be sure to check The Digest, your student mailbox and the Financial Aid Bulletin Board on a regular basis for important notices. Read all forms carefully and keep copies of all paperwork in one place for easy access and reference. Please be sure to check your Widener Campus Cruiser Email Account frequently as it the Financial Aid Office's primary form of communication with our students.

Excess loan funds will be provided to the student in the early part of the semester depending on when your loan funds are approved by the Department of Education for disbursement. To receive those funds efficiently, you should sign up for Direct Deposit. Direct deposit allows students to receive semester tuition account refunds more quickly. Students will have the added convenience of email notification when funds are transferred out of the University and direct deposit allows for immediate access to funds (according to each bank's policy). This service is Widener University's preferred method of delivery. To defer payments on any prior loans, deferment forms must be submitted to the Registrar's Office for certification and submissions to your servicers. Contact your servicers for correct paperwork.

The student employment programs have very specific requirements and deadlines. If you are interested in student employment, consult the Financial Aid Office for job placement and payroll procedures. All required University paperwork must be on file before students may begin working and paychecks are issued. Students with specific questions may contact Kristin Stiteler, Work-Study Coordinator at (302) 477-2293.

The financial aid application process is done annually and begins early in the spring semester for the following year. Application instructions will be sent via email in early February. Please pay particular attention to financial aid notices and deadlines to ensure consideration for all desired funds.

Our office is responsible for approval of requests for changes in division, course loads and schedules, as well as requests to defer examinations. All such requests must be made in writing through a Dean's Action Request form in the Registrar's Office. (There is also a copy of the form in your student handbook and on-line).

Our office also arranges accommodations for students with documented disabilities and other special circumstances. Students with documented disabilities who seek classroom or examination accommodations must also submit a Dean's Action Request. The sooner we are aware of your needs, the sooner we will be able to provide you with the appropriate accommodation.

We are also responsible for monitoring compliance with the Student Code of Conduct, the Title 9 Drug Free Environment, and the University's policy against discrimination and harassment. These policies are set forth in the Student Handbook.

You should also be aware of the following Law School policies:

1. You may not miss more than 20% of the class sessions for any course; missing more than 20% of the classes will result in involuntary withdrawal from the class. Please refer to §701 of the Academic Code in the Student Handbook. A request to withdraw from any course will be considered only if the maximum number of absences has not yet been exceeded., and only if extraordinary circumstances exist.
2. Class cancellations bearing the Dean's Office approval stamp are posted on class room doors as soon as we receive notification.
3. To enable us to reach you, please keep your phone number and address current with the Registrar's Office. It is also important that you CHECK YOUR MAILBOX AND EMAIL FREQUENTLY!
4. Official undergraduate transcripts are required for all incoming students. If you have not already submitted your official transcript, you must submit a copy to the Admissions Office no later than Friday, Sept. 23, 2011.
5. Please make it a habit to check the Electronic Bulletin Board (television monitors), as well as Campus Cruiser and the Law School website for important announcements

CAREER DEVELOPMENT

GENERAL

The Career Development Office staff welcomes you to the law school and congratulates you as you embark upon your legal education. The Career Development Office operates as a full-service center and reference library and the staff is available to help you access helpful resources. Career counselors are available to assist you in your search for employment and to review your goals, resumes, and interviewing techniques.

While we encourage appointments, we have an open door policy. During the school year, our regular hours are 9:00 a.m. - 7:00 p.m., Monday and Thursday and 9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. on Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday. If you are interested in meeting with a counselor after 5 p.m., please call to schedule an appointment. When classes are not in session, please call the office at x2163 for current office hours.

We encourage you to take advantage of the services offered by the Career Development Office after November 1st. As a member of the National Association of Law Placement (NALP), the law school adheres to the NALP Principles and Standards for Law Placement and Recruitment Activities. Part V, Section D, specifically applies to first year regular division students:

1. Summer Employment Provisions for First Year Students
2. Law schools should not offer placement services to first semester first year law students prior to November 1 except in the case of part-time students who may be given assistance in seeking positions during the school term.
3. Prospective employers and first year law students should not initiate contact with one another and employers should not interview or make offers to first year students before December 1.
4. All offers to first year students for summer employment should remain open for at least two weeks after the date made.

The NALP "Principles and Standards" is available for your review. Between now and November 1st, we invite you to attend any informational programs hosted by the Career Development Office that may be of interest to you. The Career Development Office will hold orientation programs around November 1st to provide you with information about the job search process and first year summer employment opportunities.

Your legal education can provide you with an array of choices and opportunities. There are key times during law school when some of these career opportunities must be pursued. Initially, however, you should focus on the academic component of your legal education and concentrate on acquiring the skills and expertise necessary to produce quality work. In particular, developing strong research and writing skills will prove helpful to the job search process.

MENTORING PROGRAM

This program pairs first year law students like yourself with volunteer alumni for the academic year. Our mission is to initiate mentor-protégé relationships that will help you through your first year of school and begin to expose you to the legal profession. Our alumni volunteers are matched with first year students who have signed up for the program; because we have a limited number of mentors, however, matches cannot be guaranteed and must be made on a first-come, first-served basis. If you are matched with a mentor, we will notify you in late September. The first contact between you and your mentor may be our "kick-off" social, being held at the Barristers' Club in mid-October. You and your mentor then work out a mutually convenient schedule of contacts for the academic year; only three contacts are required. You may decide to meet for lunch, observe court proceedings, or discuss over the phone particular issues of concern to you. In short, you and your mentor design the parameters of your relationship.

NOTE: Mentoring Program sign up materials will appear in your student mailbox within the next few weeks. (Space is limited, so SIGN UP ASAP after the materials arrive !!)

The Benefits of Having a Mentor

As a first year law student you are faced with the challenge of making major decisions early in your education, when you may know little about the legal profession. Our alumni mentors can give you the benefit of their knowledge and experience to help you achieve your educational and professional goals. A mentor can advise you on matters ranging from simple course selection to professional success and satisfaction. Although they may provide career guidance, they are not expected to find employment for the student with whom they are matched.

The purpose of the Roxana C. Arsht Fellowship is to encourage law students, recent law school graduates and attorneys newly admitted to the Bar of the Supreme Court of Delaware to pursue careers in non-profit sectors in Delaware. In an effort to encourage attorneys to work in public interest positions, the Fellowship offers financial assistance for three years to each recipient selected.

Applicants must apply for the Fellowship within three years of law school graduation, and must secure a position with a non-profit organization that provides legal services that benefit the Delaware community, underrepresented groups, or indigent persons in Delaware. An applicant's annual salary may not exceed $50,000 to be eligible for the Fellowship.

For the year 2012, the Fellowship Committee will accept applications from September 1 through October 15, 2011. A decision will be announced by December 15, 2011 with one award being approved. The amount of the award will vary each year as it is based on the annual interest earned by the Fellowship Fund. Recipients will have two opportunities to pass the Delaware Bar exam, and if necessary, they must sit for the exam in consecutive years to continue their eligibility.

Applications may be found at the Delaware State Bar Association website <http://www.dsba.org/pdfs/ArshtFellowshipApplication2011.pdf>. Please send the completed application with your resume and supplemental statements to the Delaware State Bar Association address listed above. If you have any questions, please contact Jessica Zeldin at (302) 656-4433.

RECYCLING NEWS

Widener Law School has teamed up with the Delaware Solid Waste Authority (DSWA) to offer on-campus recycling to students, the staff and administration here at the law school. The Recycling Program is the result of the efforts of Widener's Recycling Task Force, which comprises members of Widener Law's staff and administration, together with students from Widener's Environmental Law Society (ELS). The Program began during the summer of 2007 and has proved to be successful by diverting valuable recyclable commodities from the waste stream. It is up to the students to ensure that recycling is here to stay by participating in accordance with the recycling guidelines located at each collection site throughout the campus. Please do not throw waste items into the recycling containers; lists of accepted materials are located at each recycling location. The recycling containers are "single-stream" which means glass, plastic bottles, aluminum cans, and paper (office paper, junk mail, and newspapers) can now be comingled into any of the containers. The Recycling Program is only available to the Widener Law community, and is not available to the general public.

Also, members of the Widener community and their families – faculty, staff, student, and alums – are welcome to take all of their household recyclables to the containers in the back lot of the law school in Delaware near the maintenance shed. The program is single-stream but containers are located there for cardboard and batteries. Plastic bags are handled along with the other plastics.

The Recycling Program is comprehensive, and includes the following commodities:

- Mixed paper (office paper, colored paper, junk mail & envelopes)
- Newspaper (including magazines and phone books)
- Plastic Bottles (#'s 1 & 2) and plastic bags
- Aluminum cans
- Glass (clear, green and brown)
- HP Inkjet cartridges (outside of ITS office on Main Street)
- Batteries; except rechargeable (outside of the Media Services office in computer lab off Main Street)

Recycling stations are located in the following areas:

- Main Law Building (All 4 Floors-Library near restrooms, Copy rooms and each Floor and Behind Computer Lab)
- Crown Court
- Geesey Hall (1st Floor)
- Barristers Club (Dining Hall)
- Shipley Hall (Vending Area)
- Concord Hall (Campus Safety)
- Polishook Hall (Central Lobby and Vending Area)
- Maintenance Building (Break Room)

Please do your part to ensure the success of the Widener Law Recycling Program. If you have any questions, concerns or comments, please email the Recycling Task Force at: recycling@mail.widener.edu

Over 40 past and present Widener Law professors have provided copies of their exams to be included in the Exam Archive accessible from the Law Library homepage. Approximately 300 exams are available, arranged under professors' names. To view the exams, a username and password are needed. Obtain these from the Reference Desk, then enter them on the Exam Archive login page. Be sure to click on the Enter box rather than using the enter key in order to go to the proper page.

Library Cell Phone Etiquette

Please help maintain an atmosphere conducive to study in the library. Mute your cell phones and hold phone conversations outside of the library. Lounges and hallways are good places for extended conversations. Thanks for respecting the study space and needs of all users of our library.

Widener University School of Law
Celebrates 35 years as a Federal
Depository Library
1976 - 2011

The display cases in the library currently hold items relating to this event. The Legal Information Center has received a certificate and a letter signed by Mary Alice Barish, Superintendent of Documents, congratulating our Library for upholding the legal standards of access to U.S. Government information required of a Federal Depository Library for 35 years. Our Library's Federal document collection concentrates on congressional, judicial, and administrative materials published by the United States Government. Depository libraries are obligated to provide the public with access to all Federal Depository material in their collection. Stop by and browse the information in the display cases located on the second floor of the library.

Library Balcony Open Until Dusk

The Library's balcony is open for students and staff to use from 8:00 a.m. until dusk. Tables and chairs are available for eating or studying. There is a wastebasket for food scraps plus a recycling bin for paper and bottles. The Library staff hopes that students will enjoy the fresh air when weather permits. The balcony is accessible from the second floor landing in the Library's south stairwell.
