MEMORANDUM

TO: Second Year Regular Division Students
Second and Third Year Extended Division Students

FROM: Interim Co-Dean Erin Daly

RE: Josiah Oliver Wolcott Fellowship Program

DATE: February 10, 2014

I am pleased to announce that the Wolcott Fellowship Program will continue for next year under the auspices of the School of Law and the Delaware Supreme Court. By way of an application and interview process, a total of five students will be chosen to clerk for the Justices of the Supreme Court of Delaware. Those selected are named Wolcott Fellows. This is an exceptional opportunity, unique to this Law School and, to the best of my knowledge, to any law school in the United States.

The superior students chosen will serve as judicial clerks for approximately twenty hours per week during the course of the academic year. Each Wolcott Fellow will receive academic credit and a scholarship grant. The clerkship commences shortly after Labor Day 2014 and ends with the completion of classes in April 2015.

Applications will be accepted until 4:00 p.m., on Thursday, March 20, 2014. Please submit applications to me through Linda Triolo in the Dean's Office.

I strongly urge those who qualify to apply. The program affords those selected a unique and very worthwhile experience.

JOSIAH OLIVER WOLCOTT FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

Criteria for Selection

Wolcott Fellows will be selected from among those applicants who will be in their third year of the Regular Division program or third or fourth year of the Extended Division program during the 2014-15 academic year. Applicants should rank in the top fifteen percent of their class or otherwise demonstrate strong academic credentials. Law Review experience is not a prerequisite but applicants should possess substantial experience in research and writing.

Application Procedure

Applications should be directed to Linda Triolo in the Office of the Dean not later than 4:00 p.m. on Thursday, March 20, 2014. Applications should include three (one original and two copies) of each of the following:

(1) a cover letter, (2) a recent Law School transcript, (3) a resume, (4) a writing sample, and (5) a letter of reference from one full-time faculty member. A letter of reference from an employer will also be welcomed. Personal interviews will be scheduled in early April after an initial screening.

Please address your cover letter as follows:

The Honorable Henry duPont Ridgely
Interim Co-Dean Erin Daly
Wolcott Fellowship Selection Committee
Widener University School of Law
Delaware Campus

Dear Justice Ridgely and Dean Daly:

Duties of Wolcott Fellows

Wolcott Fellows will be assigned those duties routinely performed by law clerks as determined by the Delaware Supreme Court Justice for whom they work. During the period of the clerkship, legal work may not be performed for anyone other than the member of the Supreme Court, and no other work for compensation may be undertaken without the consent of the Court. All work done and information received are confidential and must be so treated at all times.

The work schedule will be based on an average of twenty hours per week, with due regard to academic, holiday and examination schedules. The precise schedule will be set by the Court after conferring with the Fellows.

Scholarship Grant

Each Wolcott Fellow will receive academic credit (three credits per semester) and a tuition remission scholarship grant (approximately $4,000 per semester). If a Wolcott Fellow is already receiving a full-tuition merit scholarship for the 2014-15 academic year, s/he will receive a cash grant of $2,500 per semester instead of the Wolcott tuition remission. The credit and scholarship aspects of the program may be different for students enrolled in the J.D./Psy.D. joint degree program.

Selection Committee

The selection committee is comprised of Delaware Supreme Court Justice Henry duPont Ridgely and Interim Co-Dean Erin Daly.

Interviews

Finalists will be contacted by phone by the Dean's Office to schedule their interview with Justice Ridgely and Dean Daly. The interviews will be held the afternoon of Monday, April 7, 2014, in the Deans' Conference Room, on the 4th floor of the Main Law Building. The Wolcott Fellows will be selected from this group.

The #1 most important recycling fact is You can make a difference!

The cell phone is the fastest growing information technology of today. Everyone has one from “tweens” to seniors. We consider the cell phone a necessary accessory and would not leave home without one. In the US alone there are more than 280 million cell phone users with over 4 billion worldwide.

With the advent of the smartphone, many users traded up for the latest gadget. What happened to their old cell phone? Tossing a cell in the trash can have a negative impact on the environment. Because of their size, it is easy to just throw your old cell phone in the household trash without a second thought. Ac-

According to the EPA, cell phones contain persistent toxins, which means, the toxins in cell phones do not easily breakdown and remain in landfills for years.

When you next upgrade your cell, please recycle the old one responsibly or even better donate it. There are many organizations that could use your old phone.

Did you ever wonder what daily impact we humans have on our planet?

Well, in a typical day humans will add over 15 million tons of carbon to the atmosphere, destroy more than 115 square miles of tropical rainforest, create over 72 square miles of desert, eliminate between 40 to 100 species, erode over 71 million tons of topsoil, add 2,700 tons of CFCs to the stratosphere, and increase the population by at least 263,000 so that the next day our impact is even greater.
