WIDENER UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW ~ HARRISBURG CAMPUS law.widener.edu

A MESSAGE TO ALL STUDENTS

FROM DEAN LINDA AMMONS

As you may know, this Wednesday is Administrative Professionals Day, and this is the week on the Law School calendar when we traditionally recognize the outstanding contributions of members of the staff. I trust you agree with me that the faculty, students and senior administrators here are extremely fortunate to have the pleasure of working with so many wonderful and truly dedicated people. The people in the Registrar's Office, Financial Aid, the faculty secretaries, clinic secretary, administrative secretaries, student organizations secretaries, the Career Development staff, the Library staff, the Campus Services and maintenance staff, the Admissions staff, the food services staff, the Campus Safety officers, the Alumni & Development Office staff, the Bursar's Office staff and the ITS staff make all of our lives easier. Their extra efforts and kindness to all of us are what really make this Law School work. Like the rest of us, they are here to help you succeed and they take great pride in your accomplishments and those of our graduates. I hope that you will take a moment before the year is out to say "thank you" to any staff member who has gone that extra mile to help you or whose friendly smile has made your day a little bit better.

WIDENER JOURNAL OF LAW, ECONOMICS & RACE

The Widener Journal of Law, Economics & Race will hold a General Interest Meeting on Monday, April 23 at 5:00 p.m. in Room L202. Attendance is highly recommended for students interested in gaining membership to Widener's newest and only bicampus law review journal through the Summer Writing Competition.

If you cannot attend this meeting, but would like information, please feel free to contact Rebecca Kunkel, WJLER Web & Technology Editor, by emailing her at rkkwidener@gmail.com.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

FINAL EXAMINATIONS

As final examinations approach, all students should take a few minutes to review the Law School rules relating to examinations. These rules may be found in §607-609 of the Academic Code and §203-205 of the Dean's Office Regulations.

According to §607(f)(l) of the Code, all examinations are graded anonymously. Students should not discuss the examination process, including the possibility of exam deferral or exam accommodation with faculty members. Any attempt by a student to identify himself/herself to a professor by placing notes or messages on an examination or exam booklet compromises the anonymous grading system. All questions should be directed to the Dean of Students Office or the Registrar's Office. Any compromise of the anonymous grading system by a student constitutes a violation of the Code of Conduct and could result in suspension or expulsion.

Permission to defer an examination will be granted only in extreme cases. Students should refer to the guidelines. Emergency deferrals will be granted to those students who, for medical reasons, are unable to sit for an examination when scheduled. A student who becomes ill and cannot take an examination when scheduled must call the Registrar's Office before the examination begins. If that student cannot appear in person or call the Registrar, he/she may miss the exam and apply for a deferral. An application for this type of deferral must be made within 48 hours of the original exam date and in no event later than the last day of regularly scheduled exams. The student must also provide the Registrar's Office with a letter from the attending physician which confirms that the student was unable to sit for the examination due to illness.

Interested in earning credits abroad this summer? Want to study International Law topics and then go on safari? Or how about studying near the city known as the international center for peace and diplomacy or arrive at class on a vaporetto? Check out Widener's Summer Law Institutes. You can earn up to 6 credits while visiting exciting places. Widener has summer law institutes in Nairobi, Lausanne, and Venice.
