Environmental Law Distinguished Speaker Series

Sponsored by the Widener Environmental Law Center

February 6, 2013—Noon
Delaware Campus

Dinah L. Shelton

"Environmental Rights in the Jurisprudence of Human Rights Bodies"

Dinah Shelton holds the Manatt/Ahn Professorship in International Law at the George Washington University Law School, where she has taught since 2004. She is the author of Protecting Human Rights in the Americas, Remedies in International Human Rights Law, and the three-volume Encyclopedia of Genocide and Crimes against Humanity. In 2006, Shelton was awarded the Elisabeth Haub Prize for Environmental Law. She is a member of the Inter-American Human Rights Commission, for which she has served as president since 2010.

February 19, 2013—4:00 p.m.
Harrisburg Campus

David Hunter

"The Future of the International
Climate Change Regime: A Tale of Two Approaches"

1 CLE credit available for this program.

David Hunter is Professor of Law, Director of the International Legal Studies Program, and Director of the Program on International and Comparative Environmental Law at American University's Washington College of Law. He currently serves on the Boards of Directors of the Environmental Law Alliance Worldwide-US, EarthRights International, the Project on Government Oversight, and the Center for Progressive Reform.

April 18, 2013—4:00 p.m.
Harrisburg Campus

Donald A. Brown

"How U.S. Domestic Climate Law

Needs to Respond to Emerging
International Climate Law"

1 CLE credit available for this program.

Donald Brown is Scholar in Residence for Sustainability Ethics and Law, Widener University School of Law. He was Associate Professor of Environmental Ethics, Science, and Law at Penn State, an environmental lawyer for the states of Pennsylvania and New Jersey, and Program Manager for UN Organizations at the U.S. EPA. His most recent book is Climate Change Ethics: Navigating the Perfect Moral Storm.

Contacts:

Delaware program information: Carol Perrupato at caperrupato@widener.edu or 302-477-2178. Harrisburg program information: Sandy Graeff at slgraeff@widener.edu or 717-541-3965.

Widener Law

blogs.law.widener.edu/envirolawcenter