for extended periods of time, so every small comfort these animals are granted has great potential to increase their quality of life.

Holidays for the Homeless at HAHS

The Student Animal Legal Defense Fund (SALDF) will be coordinating a blanket drive to benefit the East Shore branch of the Harrisburg Area Humane Society. Why blankets? Blankets provide comfort and warmth to animals who otherwise live on bare concrete, as well as providing an outlet for their nesting instincts. Animals at a no-kill shelter (like the HAHS) may live in kennels periods of time, so every small comfort these animals are granted has great potential to increase this.

In this are reduced when stress is decreased and comfort is increased. This allows an animal's ty to emerge and enables adopters to focus on the animal's positive qualities rather than every-trong" with the animal. Also, the image of a dog or cat curled up in a blanket is more endearing isolated and frightened animal that is sitting on concrete or old newspapers. This is emotionally dopters and draws visitors to that animal's pen.

Saday, 12/1/09, SALDF will have drop boxes located in the Pit for blankets, towels, sheets and. These can be new or used. In addition, SALDF will be accepting any other items on the Humane list: http://www.humanesocietyhbg.org/Wish_List.php. The HAHS is in particular need of non-litter, paper towels, dry dog food (no red dye), small litter pans and box tops from boxes of comper (to be used as disposable litter pans). The drive will run through 12/15/09.

You for making the holidays more comfortable for Harrisburg's homeless animals. Additionally, animals who cuddle with blankets are more likely to be adopted! Problematic behaviors associated with kennel life are reduced when stress is decreased and comfort is increased. This allows an animal's true personality to emerge and enables adopters to focus on the animal's positive qualities rather than everything that is "wrong" with the animal. Also, the image of a dog or cat curled up in a blanket is more endearing than one of an isolated and frightened animal that is sitting on concrete or old newspapers. This is emotionally appealing to adopters and draws visitors to that animal's pen.

Beginning Tuesday, 12/1/09, SALDF will have drop boxes located in the Pit for blankets, towels, sheets and sleeping bags. These can be new or used. In addition, SALDF will be accepting any other items on the Humane Society's wish list: http://www.humanesocietyhbg.org/Wish List.php. The HAHS is in particular need of nonscoopable cat litter, paper towels, dry dog food (no red dye), small litter pans and box tops from boxes of computer/copy paper (to be used as disposable litter pans). The drive will run through 12/15/09.

SALDF thanks you for making the holidays more comfortable for Harrisburg's homeless animals.

PHI ALPHA HONOR SOCIETY OF SOCIAL WORKERS
BETHESDA MISSION COLLECTION

In the spirit of being thankful for what we have and being mindful of others during this holiday season, the Phi Alpha Honor Society of Social Workers is hosting a collection of much needed supplies for one of our local men's missions. The Bethesda Mission is a short term sanctuary that has been providing shelter and refuge for men in the Harrisburg area who find themselves in difficult situations. Bethesda is known for offering counseling, hope, and education in an effort to maximize strengths and reduce dependency.

The items we are most interested in collecting include: blankets, sleeping bags, long underwear, coats, gloves and hats. The size of most of the men are large to 2X and some 3X or 4X.

Any donation you would consider is very appreciated. There will be a collection box located in the Social Work office across from the registrar.

Whether you are able to support this worthy charity or not, the Phi Alpha Honor Society of Social Workers wishes you and yours a safe and happy holiday season.

FINAL EXAMINATIONS

As final examinations approach, all students should take a few minutes to review the Law School rules relating to examinations. These rules may be found in Sections 607-609 of the Academic Code and Sections 203-205 of the Dean's Office Regulations.

According to Section 607(f)(1) of the Code, all examinations are graded anonymously. Students should not discuss the examination process, including the possibility of exam deferral or exam accommodations, with faculty members. Any attempt by a student to identify himself/herself to a professor by placing notes or messages on an examination or exam booklet compromises the anonymous grading system. All questions should be directed to the Office of the Dean of Students or the Registrar's Office. Any compromise of the anonymous grading system by a student constitutes a violation of the Code of Conduct and could result in suspension or expulsion.

Emergency deferrals will be granted to those students who, for medical reasons, are unable to sit for an examination when scheduled. A student who becomes ill and cannot take an examination when scheduled must call the Registrar's Office before the examination begins. If that student cannot appear in person or call the Registrar, he/she may miss the exam and apply for a deferral. An application for this type of deferral must be made within 48 hours of the original exam date and in no event later than the last day of regularly scheduled exams. The student must also provide the Registrar's Office with a letter from the attending physician which confirms that the student was unable to sit for the examination due to illness. Students who begin an examination and leave due to illness may not make up the examination on the makeup day. The examination must be retaken at the end of the next semester in which the course is offered.

Anonymous Numbers. Anonymous numbers must be placed on all examination booklets and on the examination itself.

Lavatory Breaks. You are reminded that the honor code applies during the entire exam and a lavatory break does not mean there is a break in the honor code rules.

Student ID. Finally, remember to bring your student ID to each of your examinations. Students must be positively identified by the Registrar or exam proctor before sitting for each exam.

Students are reminded that the Student Code of Conduct Section 202(1) requires you to report all Code of Conduct violations.

LOST AND FOUND

Have you lost an item recently? A Lost and Found area is located in the Library Building. Check with Campus Safety at the Security Desk or in the Library at the Circulation Desk.

STEP UP AND TAKE THE CHALLENGE

Widener Law recently enrolled in the "ABA-EPA Climate Challenge," which requires the school to recycle most of our mixed office paper. Mixed office paper is defined as all types of white paper, colored paper, file folders, and envelopes.

Please do your part to ensure the school meets the Climate Challenge by placing all of your mixed office paper in the recycling containers and not the trash basket.

Help us meet the ABA-EPA Climate Challenge!
